Frank J. Healy, who will assume possession to-day.

No trace has been found of George Steinraber, the missing Eighth ward enjoyable evening was spent by all

OLD GAS BOARD.

Council Made no Change Despite
Mr. Gartley's Effort.

HE PROPOSED JOHN ZARNITZ

As Against Dr. Ford, but the Doctor had an Easy Race—No Opposition to Messrs Buckman and Pollock.
Wheeling Railway Ordinance
Struck a Snag—Much Routine
Business Transacted.

Considerable routine business was transacted by the city legislature last night, and contrary to the expectations of many, there was no difficulty in obtaining a quorum. The election of gas board trustees was the feature of importance. The Wheeling Railway ordinance struck a snag in the first branch, it being referred on Mr. Baird's motion, for investigation to the city solicitor and the committee on ordinances.
The ordinance grants franchise for a loop on certain streets in the Eighth ward, and its second reading was objected to at council's last meeting.

port of the city's finances, which was as

Gas Board Election.

Both branches went in joint session,
in the second branch chamber, for the election of the city gas board trustees.
The roll call by Clerk Worls showed 12
first branchers present, and Clerk
O'Brien's 22 from the second branch.
Mayor Sweeney stated the object of the joint session.

Mr. Kindelberger placed in nomination the present board, Messrs. E.
Buckman, H. T. Ford and Julius Pollock.

Mr. Gartley nominated Messrs. John Zarnitz, Buckman and Pollock.

The board was voted on as a whole.
The vote resulted thus:

First branch—
Buckman	12
Pollock	12
Ford	9
Zarnitz	3
Second branch—
Buckman	22
Pollock	22
Ford	14
Zarnitz	11
Total vote.	8
Buckman	34
Pollock	34
Ford	23
Zarnitz	11

The mayor then declared as elected,
Messrs. Buckman, Pollock and Ford, and the session was dissolved.

New Market House.

On the recommendation of the committee on markets, council decided to have plans drawn for a new market
house in the Second ward.

As to Hucksters.

An amendment to the license ordinance, presented by Mr. Miller, and adopted by council, relating to licenses for hawkers of farm products who did not rent a stall in market, had the effect of decreasing the city's revenue, and a substitute was submitted. Mr. Miller defended his previous stand, but got no second to his motion to lay the substitute on the table, and the new ordinance was adopted, by a vote of 12 to 6.

Miscellaneous Business.

Coffee houses licenses were granted to
J. J. Killen, T. C. Daly and Daniel D.
Ingram.

A resolution offered by Mr. Bradbury, providing for license tags for dogs, was referred to the ordinance committee.

Permission to Swift & Co. to construct two arways in its proposed building at Sixteenth and Eleventh streets, was asked and given.

An ordinance relating to merchants displaying advertising devices on the outside of their stores, was objected to
on its second reading.

The sum of $1,200 was reappropriated
for certain paving on North York street.

As stated in a foregoing paragraph,
the Wheeling railway ordinance was referred by the first branch of council to the committee on ordinances and the city solicitor.

If You Want to Set Your Friends to Guessing

Just appear among them arrayed in one of our New Fall Suits or Top Coats. You'll find it hard to convince them that it isn't the work of the best tailor in town, until you show them the label.

The fit is as perfect as the best tailor-made suit, and the garment will cost you something like half-made-to-order one of equal style and quality.

If you entertain any prejudice against ready-made clothing, we believe that a half hour spent in examination of our new line of faultless garments would rid you of it forever.

"THAT a Ready-Made Suit—Never!"

Ejaculated a prominent banker to his friend, a Main street merchant, who had put on for the first time a Stein-Bloch wholesale tailored Fall Suit.

It was one of those dignifiedly elegant, quietly patterned fancy worsteds of which we have spoken before, for which he paid $20.00. It fitted him to perfection, and the only alteration necessary was the changing of a coat button and a taking in of a seam in the waist of the trousers, which hung most gracefully over the instep of his boot in truly

"Peg-Top" Fashion.

"Peg-Top" fashion is a shape applied to the trousers
from the knee to the bottom.

We have a beautiful lot of Fall Suits and Overcoats, the patterns of which are of the same exclusiveness as those coming from a swell tailor, at half the price.
